The new Mayor of Tunbridge Wells, Cr Dennis Smith, and his wife Doreen, held their civic dinner at the Assembly Hall last Thursday. The guests included mayors and chairmen of 14 district and town councils from throughout Kent. The first citizens and their escorts came from Maidstone, Rochester, Hove, Gillingham, Wealden, Margate, Ramsgate, Shepway, Sevenoaks, Bromley, Dartford, Ashford and Swanley. Guest speakers were Michael Aldridge, chairman of ROCC Computers Ltd., and Michael Munro, president of Headway, the mayor's chosen charity for his year in office. The cabaret was provided by mezzo soprano, Janet Shell, who was accompanied by John Flinders
